

9h00 to 9h30 : welcome coffee

9h30 to 9h50 : Lorenzo Alunni : Roma in Rome: Healthcare and Citizenship

Post-doc Researcher - IRIS-EHESS

9h50 to 10h10 : Dekking Sara : Ethical evaluation of dependent relationships in pediatric cancer drug research

MA, PhD student - UMC Utrecht

10h10 to 10h30 : Gysels Marjolein / West Emily : The ethical implications and attitudes towards dementia research

Dr, Senior researcher - University of Amsterdam Phd Candidate - Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam

10h30 to 10h50 : Greguric Ivana : Ethical and Scientific Issues of creating enhanced 'human' beings: Framework for Cyborgoethics

mag.pol./PhD student - University of Zagreb

10h50 to 11h10: Coffee break

11h10 to 11h30 : Marks Jonathan : Public-Private Partnerships to Promote Public Health and Health-Related Research: An Analysis of the Systemic Effects, Ethical Issues, and Policy Implications

Director of Bioethics Program - The Pennsylvania State University

11h30 to 11h50 : Mathieu Géraldine: Le secret des origines en droit de la filiation

Assistante - Doctorante en droit de la famille - Université de Namur

11H50 to 12h10 : Pettle Sharon : Post Conception issues in Donor Conception - taking things forward: evaluation of children's groups from parents and offspring perspectives, understanding of DC issues from professional training and experience

Dr - Consultant Clinical Psychologist - London

12H10 to 12h30 : Ranisch Robert: Liberal Eugenics and the Non-Identity Problem

M. A. - International Centre for Ethics in Science and Humanities

12h30 to 13h30 – Buffet lunch served by the Foundation in the Brocher Centre

13h30 to 13h50 : Simm Kadri : Disclosure of genetic information and the bioethics anthology

Associate professor, PhD - University of Tartu

13h50 to 14h10 : Van der Heide Agnes : The societal impact of allowing physician-assistance in dying: experiences from the Netherlands after the adoption of the euthanasia law

Full professor - Erasmus MC, dept. of Public Health

14h10 to 14h30 : Warren Rachel : Virtuous Parents: A Virtue Ethics Approach to Reproductive Ethics and Law.

Doctoral Candidate - The University of Manchester

14h30 to 14h50: Coffee break

14h50 to 15h10 : Wildevuur Sabine : The social impact of implementing telemedicine within person-centred care on empowerment and self-management of patients with chronic diseases

Drs head creative care lab, phd student - Vrije university Amsterdam

15h10 to 15h30 : Rushton Cynda : Re-conceptualizing moral distress in the context of advanced technology

Anne and George Bunting Professor Clinical Ethics, Nursing, & Medicine - Johns Hopkins University

Each presentation lasts 15 minutes + 5 minutes for questions